

Laurence Hoye - Biography

Professor Emeritus, University of Lethbridge
Box 76
Diamond City, AB T0K 0T0

Born in Lloydminster, SK on June 9 1932. Attended a one-room country school southwest of Lloydminster for four years, and then moved to Edmonton, where I attended public schools. Attended the University of Alberta and earned a B. Sc.(Hon) , '55, and M. Sc.'56 in Mathematics. Further graduate work at the University of Washington in Seattle. Joined the Lethbridge Junior College in 1961, then the University of Lethbridge in 1967 where I held various academic and senior administrative posts, such as Department Chairman and Associate Vice President (Academic). Retired in 1993. In retirement I have become interested in seeing nuclear energy assume its inevitable role in our society.
